

FRONT LINE LEADERSHIP COLLEGE/UNIVERSITY PARTNERSHIPS

Colleges and universities can unlock a world of possibilities and enrich their educational portfolio with our ready-to-deploy online and in-house leadership programs, assessments, content, models, and facilitation materials.

WHY CHOOSE FRONT LINE LEADERSHIP?

Our flexible and modular program content comprises a robust 40-hour curriculum. Designed to adapt to the unique needs of your clients, our content seamlessly supports both in-house and virtual program deliveries. This flexibility empowers colleges to craft a wide array of stand-alone or hybrid programs, catering to single or multi-site deliveries. What's more, we're committed to keeping our content up-to-date, ensuring that it consistently addresses the ever-evolving needs of industries. We offer both English and Spanish content in both the in-person and online options.

CERTIFICATION AND FACILITATION OPTIONS:

We offer one, two, and three-day train-the-trainer certification programs, tailor-made for internal trainers within your college. Our certification process not only grants trainers valuable insights but also provides them with full facilitation materials, PowerPoint decks, and video content. These resources are available in both in-house and virtual formats, making the transition into training seamless. And should your college require additional training support, our team of experienced trainers is spread across the United States, ready to assist with your training needs.

WHO IS FRONT LINE FOR?

Our program content caters to a diverse range of leadership needs, making it suitable for a wide spectrum of audiences within your institution. Whether you're nurturing high-potential employees, guiding leads, empowering supervisors, or advancing mid-level managers, our programs have been proven to deliver results.
